Numerical methods for overdetermined linear systems of equations